OPENING HYMN: LBW #407 “Come, You Thankful People, Come”

INVOCATION

Pastor: In the name of the Father and of the ☩Son and of the Holy Spirit.

People: Amen.

Pastor: God certainly gives daily bread to everyone without our prayers, even to all evil people.

People: We pray that God would lead us to realize this and to receive our daily bread with thanksgiving.

Pastor: Do not be anxious about anything,

People: but in everything by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known to God.

Pastor: On this Eve of Thanksgiving Day let us, first, confess our neglect of God's good gifts and pray for forgiveness and faith.

People: Lord God, we confess that, though every good and perfect gift comes from you, we have not always been aware of your goodness nor have we paused to give you the praise and thanks that you are due. Open our eyes as we open our hands that we may know your mercy, receive your forgiveness and give you our heartfelt gratitude, not only this day but all our days.

Pastor: Upon this, your confession, I, by virtue of my office, as a called and ordained servant of the Word, announce the grace of God unto all of you, and in the stead and by the command of my Lord Jesus Christ I forgive you all your sins in the name of the Father and of the ☩Son and of the Holy Spirit.

People: Amen

PRAYER OF THE DAY

Pastor: Let us pray. Almighty God,

All: your mercies are new every morning and you graciously provide for all our needs of body and soul. Grant us your Holy Spirit that we may acknowledge your goodness, give thanks for your benefits, and serve you in willing obedience all our days; through Jesus Christ, our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen

FIRST LESSON: Deuteronomy 26:1-11

¹ “When you come into the land which the LORD your God gives you for an inheritance, and have taken possession of it, and live in it, ² you shall take some of the first of all the fruit of the ground, which you harvest from your land that the LORD your God gives you, and you shall put it in a basket, and you shall go to the place which the LORD your God will choose, to make his name to dwell there. ³ And you shall go to the priest who is in office at that time, and say to him, ‘I declare this day to the LORD your God that I have come into the land which the LORD swore to our fathers to give us.’ ⁴ Then the priest shall take the basket from your hand, and set it down before the altar of the LORD your God. ⁵ “And you shall make response before the LORD your God, ‘A wandering Aramean was my father; and he went down into Egypt and sojourned there, few in number; and there he became a nation, great, mighty, and populous. ⁶ And the Egyptians treated us harshly, and afflicted us, and laid upon us hard bondage. ⁷ Then we cried to the LORD the God of our fathers, and the LORD heard our voice, and saw our affliction, our toil, and our oppression; ⁸ and the LORD brought us out of Egypt with a mighty hand and an outstretched arm, with great terror, with signs and wonders; ⁹ and he brought us into this place and gave us this land, a land flowing with milk and honey. ¹⁰ And behold, now I bring the first of the fruit of the ground, which thou, O LORD, hast given me.’ And you shall set it down before the LORD your God, and worship before the LORD your God; ¹¹ and you shall rejoice in all the good which the LORD your God has given to you and to your house, you, and the Levite, and the sojourner who is among you.

SECOND LESSON: Philippians 4:6-20

⁶ Have no anxiety about anything, but in everything by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known to God. ⁷ And the peace of God, which passes all understanding, will keep your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus. ⁸ Finally, brethren, whatever is true, whatever is honorable, whatever is just, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is gracious, if there is any excellence, if there is anything worthy of praise, think about these things. ⁹ What you have learned and received and heard and seen in me, do; and the God of peace will be with you. ¹⁰ I rejoice in the Lord greatly that now at length you have revived your concern for me; you were indeed concerned for me, but you had no opportunity. ¹¹ Not that I complain of want; for I have learned, in whatever state I am, to be content. ¹² I know how to be abased, and I know how to abound; in any and all circumstances I have learned the secret of facing plenty and hunger, abundance and want. ¹³ I can do all things in him who strengthens me. ¹⁴ Yet it was kind of you to share my trouble. ¹⁵ And you

Philippians yourselves know that in the beginning of the gospel, when I left Macedo'nia, no church entered into partnership with me in giving and receiving except you only; ¹⁶for even in Thessaloni'ca you sent me help^[a] once and again. ¹⁷Not that I seek the gift; but I seek the fruit which increases to your credit. ¹⁸I have received full payment, and more; I am filled, having received from Epaphrodi'tus the gifts you sent, a fragrant offering, a sacrifice acceptable and pleasing to God. ¹⁹And my God will supply every need of yours according to his riches in glory in Christ Jesus. ²⁰To our God and Father be glory for ever and ever. Amen.

GOSPEL: Matthew 6:25-33

Pastor: The holy Gospel according to Matthew the 6th chapter.

People: Glory to you, O Lord.

²⁵“Therefore I tell you, do not be anxious about your life, what you shall eat or what you shall drink, nor about your body, what you shall put on. Is not life more than food, and the body more than clothing? ²⁶Look at the birds of the air: they neither sow nor reap nor gather into barns, and yet your heavenly Father feeds them. Are you not of more value than they? ²⁷And which of you by being anxious can add one cubit to his span of life?^[a] ²⁸And why are you anxious about clothing? Consider the lilies of the field, how they grow; they neither toil nor spin; ²⁹yet I tell you, even Solomon in all his glory was not arrayed like one of these. ³⁰But if God so clothes the grass of the field, which today is alive and tomorrow is thrown into the oven, will he not much more clothe you, O men of little faith? ³¹Therefore do not be anxious, saying, ‘What shall we eat?’ or ‘What shall we drink?’ or ‘What shall we wear?’ ³²For the Gentiles seek all these things; and your heavenly Father knows that you need them all. ³³But seek first his kingdom and his righteousness, and all these things shall be yours as well.

Pastor: The Gospel of the Lord.

People: Praise to you, O Christ.

HYMN: LBW #410 “We Give Thee but Thine Own” creator of heaven and earth.

He was conceived by the power of the Holy Spirit and born of the virgin Mary.

He suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and was buried.

He descended into hell.

On the third day he rose again.

He ascended into heaven, and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again to judge the living and the dead.

holy catholic Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of body, and life
everlasting. Amen

People: Remember the wondrous works that he has done; his miracles, and the judgments he uttered.

Pastor: And all the angels were standing around the throne, and around the elders and the four living creatures, and they fell on their faces before the throne, and worshiped God saying:

All: Amen! Blessing and glory and wisdom and thanksgiving and honor and power and might be to our God forever and ever. Amen

P
C Lord, remember us in your kingdom, and teach us to pray:
Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever and ever. Amen.

PRAYER OF THANKSGIVING

Pastor:

Let us pray. O holy Lord, we give you endless praise and thanks; for you have given yourself on the cross to save us from our sins, and now you have given your holy self to us — your body and your blood — to nourish and strengthen our souls. Stay with us and continue to bless us through all of our days, and lead us by the Holy Spirit to live for you, the Trinity in unity.

All: Amen.

BENEDICTION

Pastor: The Lord bless you and keep you.

The Lord make his face shine on you and be gracious to you.

The Lord look upon you with favor and give you peace.

People: Amen.

CLOSING HYMN: LBW #557 “Let All Things Now Living”

After the singing of the hymn, the congregation is dismissed.

The image features a large, elegant calligraphic design. At the top, a large, ornate letter 'L' is formed by thick black lines, intertwined with delicate, swirling flourishes and small leaf-like motifs. Below this, the text "Let us come before him with thanksgiving." is written in a fluid, cursive script. The word "Let" is particularly large and decorative, starting with a large loop. The text is framed by more intricate floral and vine-like flourishes that extend from the top and bottom, creating a sense of grace and beauty. The entire design is rendered in black on a plain white background.

Let us come before him with thanksgiving.
